May God’s name endure forever, like the sun. All shall be blest in you, O God, and the nations shall call you righteous.

God alone does wondrous things, and judges the people with justice. Peace shall abound, until the moon is no more.

May all kings fall down before God, and all nations give service.

May the mountains yield prosperity for the people. May God’s mercy be like rain that falls to earth, so the lives of the needy are saved.
