With the words of my mouth, I will speak praise to God, and all flesh will bless God’s name for ever.

The Creator upholds those who fall and raises up all who are bent low.

You open your hand, O God, to satisfy the desire of every living thing.

You are just and kind in all your ways. You are near to all who call in truth and sincerity.

You fulfil the desire of all who fear you. They cry to you and you save them

For you watch over all who love you. But you will surely destroy the wicked. Amen.
